

To: Federal Communications CommissionFrom:Edward Potts
Re: XM Satellite Radio

Dear Sirs: XM Radio offers a unique service to the North American continent with its broadcast of channels nationwide. The National Association of Broadcasters might be concerned but like cable TV, XM radio is a pay for hearing service not available on the open airwaves. Please let our capatilistic society determine the availability of this service, not regulators.